★ 9 MEMORABLE DAYS - 5 RUSTIC PORTS-OF-CALL:
At the best time of year to cruise Alaska's Inside Passage!

Inside Passage: Glistening within Alaska's Panhandle, this protected strip of water is a cruiser's dream. As viewed from the sea, the towering glaciers, the brilliant blue ice, the emerald green of the virgin forests and the diamond-bright waterfalls combine to dazzle all who pass along these shorelines.

Juneau: This beautiful Alaskan capital is just 13 miles from the majestic Mendenhall Glacier and enjoy views of Juneau Icefield, Lynn Canal and Stephens Passage. Maybe you'll want to ride the Mt. Roberts Tramway for spectacular views of the upper mountain pastures and harbor below.

Skagway: You can hear the cries of "gold in the Yukon" still echoing from steep canyon walls that surround this lively, historical city. You'll want to visit the famous Historic District, Gold Rush Cemetery, Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park, Trail of '98 Museum and the White Pass & Yukon Route narrow-gauge railroad.

Endicott Arm and Dawes Glacier - Scenic Cruising: Cut from age-old glacial movements, Endicott Arm is a narrow fjord over thirty miles long. Sailing down it gives you a view into some of the most dramatic vistas in the Alaskan North. See the spectacular glaciers of Endicott Arm, including Dawes Glacier, which sometimes drops colossal chunks of ice into the sea. Revel in the walls of ice that stretch stories above the waterline, and delight in the cliffsides that are decorated with wilderness forests and wildlife.

Ketchikan: This favorite port of call boasts an outside museum of native art that is considered the largest collection of totem poles in the world. For this reason, Ketchikan is recognized as one of the top 100 arts communities in America. This is also one of Alaska's best fishing spots!

Victoria, B.C.: Sitting across the water from Vancouver on the southern peninsula of Vancouver Island, this charming seaport waits to be explored. The city's wonderfully restored Old Town and the meticulously manicured Butchart Gardens are the highlights of the second largest city in British Columbia.
